GREAT NORTHWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Great Northwest Athletic Conference began its first season of athletic competition this fall. The conference features 10 NCAA Division II schools, which were all formally affiliated with the PacWest Conference.

The 10 schools are located in five different states, including five in the state of Washington (Central Washington, Saint Martin's, Seattle University, Seattle Pacific and Western Washington).

The GNAC, which officially was founded on July 1, also includes the University of Alaska Anchorage, the University of Alaska Fairbanks, Northwest Nazarene University (Idaho), Western Oregon University and Humboldt State University (Calif.).

Of the 10, three - Alaska Anchorage, Alaska Fairbanks and Seattle Pacific - were charter members of the PacWest Conference, which was created in May, 1992 with the merger of the Great Northwest Conference and the Continental Divide Conference.

Five GNAC members - Central Washington, Humboldt State, Saint Martin's, Western Oregon and Western Washington - joined the PacWest prior to the 1998-99 season.

Central Washington, Saint Martin's and Western Washington were previously members of the Pacific Northwest Athletic Conference, while Western Oregon was a member of the Cascade Conference. HSU was a member of the Northern California Athletic Conference.

Seattle University and Northwest Nazarene, from the Northwest and Cascade conferences, joined the PacWest prior to the 1999-2000 season. Both schools still hold dual affiliation with the NAIA and won't be eligible to compete in NCAA post-season events until the 2002-03 school year.

COMMISSIONER

Richard R. Hannan (First Year)

Richard R. Hannan, who has been involved in intercollegiate athletics for almost four decades, was appointed the first commissioner of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC) last May. He assumed his new duties July 1.

Hannan, a native of Spokane, Wash., served as interim athletic director at Lewis-Clark State College last year. Hannan, who also was the athletic director and head basketball coach at LCSC between 1974 and 1989, has also been an athletic director at two NCAA Division I schools.

"Richard's understanding of our conference's ideals is clear," said Humboldt State University athletic director Mike Swan, chair of the conference management council. "He brings strong leadership to the GNAC in this very critical stage of formation and growth."

Hannan, who earned a BA degree in social science in 1963 at Eastern Washington University, coached basketball at Columbia Basin College for seven years (1967-74) before beginning his first term at LCSC.

While at LCSC, he served as the host athletic director for the NAIA national baseball tournament for six years. He developed an honorary coaches program for the tournament. He also helped organize the Lewis-Clark State Warrior Booster Club, which became a substantial funding source for the college.

The LCSC program made substantial growth during his tenure, correcting inequities in the women's sports programs and adding the sports of men's and women's tennis. The Warrior baseball team also won four NAIA national titles during his term.

Hannan was appointed the athletic director at Weber State University in Ogden, Utah, in 1989. Three years later he was appointed to the same position at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, Texas, before returning to the Northwest last fall.

During his tenure at Weber State, he implemented a student advisory board and created an academic support system for student-athletes. He also balanced the athletic department budget in spite of an $183,000 revenue shortfall and developed coaches television shows. He also created a radio broadcasting program, bringing the game broadcasts, promotions and marking "in-house."

At Southwest Texas State, Hannan was responsible for creating and developing the schools' first athletics endowment fund, doubling revenue production for the athletic department. He initiated a television program for football, a format that was adopted by the Southland Conference. He also developed and implemented a program to eliminate Title IX department deficiencies.

Hannan, who earned a master's degree in guidance counseling from Eastern Washington in 1967, is a member of the NAIA Hall-of-Fame and the NWAACC Hall-of-Fame.

Prior to coaching at the collegiate level, he taught and coached at North Central High School in Spokane between 1963 and 1967.

Hannan and his wife, Nancy, have been married for 40 years. They have three adult children, Gregory, Molly (Akey) and Douglas, and four grandchildren.

ON THE COVER: Among the standout returning players this winter in the GNAC are Seattle Pacific guard Stephanie Urrutia (left), Humboldt State forward Fred Hooks (center) and Western Washington guard Jacob Stevenson. Stevenson was the Most Valuable Player in last year's NCAA Division II men's regional at Bellingham.

Qualifying for the NCAA Post-Season

Men's and Women's Basketball: Six men's and six women's teams from each of the eight NCAA regions qualify for the 48-team NCAA Division II national tournaments. Automatic berths are awarded to regular-season champions. For the men that includes the PacWest and California Collegiate Athletic Association champions. The GNAC champion is not eligible to receive an automatic berth until the 2003-04 season. For the women, the CCAA is the only conference in the West Region with an automatic berth. The NCAA West Regionals will be Mar. 7-9. Four men's and five women's at-large berths will be awarded based on the final NCAA West Regional poll. The first weekly poll will be released Wednesday, Dec. 19. The poll is released each Wednesday afternoon and is available at the NCAA web site at: www.ncaa.org. The regionals will be hosted by one of the qualifying teams, usually the No. 1 ranked team in the final poll.

Elite Eight: The eight regional champions advance to the Elite Eight, the Division II equivalent of the Final Four. The men's Elite Eight will be Mar. 20-23 at Evansville, Indiana. Southern Indiana is the host at Roberts Stadium. The women's Elite Eight will also be Mar. 20-23 at Rochester, Minn., at the Mayo Civic Center.

Expansion Proposed for 2002-03: Both the men's and women's NCAA Division II Basketball Committees have made recommendations that the national tournament be expanded to 64 teams (8 from each of the eight regions), beginning next season. Next year's men's Elite Eight will be Mar. 26-29 at the Lakeland Center in Lakeland, Fla. No site has been announced for the women's Elite Eight.
